

Mini Animation Fest at Earth Day Marin - Free

Flash, hand drawn, and computer generated animation with assorted environmental themes produced over the past 40 years will be presented by College of Marin Adjunct Professors Andy Peri and Robert Ovetz. Total program about 80 minutes followed by discussion. Appropriate for teens and older. Takes place from 1:30pm - 3:00pm Saturday, April 24th as part of Earth Day Marin at the College of Marin Science Center room SC101 up the main ramp in the first classroom to the left. This is across the parking lot from the main area of the festival - there will be signs to guide you.

The Earth Day Marin Festival - Free

Join us on April 24th, 2010 from 11-6pm for Earth Day Marin at College of Marin (Kentfield). It will be a free, family-friendly outdoor festival celebrating the 40th anniversary of Earth Day featuring music, food, kid fun, forums, animation and more. Hear BCH and the Jawdroppers (members: Hot Buttered Rum, New Monsoon, Zero), Terry Garthwaite (Joy of Cooking), Oona Garthwaite, Three At Last, Let's Go Green (Music for Kids), Dr. Elmo and Wild Blue ("Grandma Got Run Over by a Reindeer"), Donna Eagle Band. See Senator Mark Leno, Supervisor Charles McGlashan, Annie Speigelman (The Dirt Diva), Carrie Bachelder (The Away Station), Kif Scheuer (SEI/Green Careers Expert), Bill Petrocelli (Book Passage/Huffington Post), Mindy Pennybacker, (author of Do One Green Thing), Susannah French (author Operation Redwood - fiction for kids 8-12). Know Your Local Food System Forum (2pm) presented by Good Earth Natural Foods and UncleMindee.com. Additional forums on "Green Careers: What You Need to Know" and "The Future of Green Building" as well as "Caring for the Earth by Being Part of the Transportation Revolution" and "Shifting to Reverse: Cool Ways to Cool the Earth." Local chefs, kids activities, animation curated by COM Profs Robert Ovetz & Andy Peri, eco-aerobics, hands-on fun and exhibition booths. Iron Chef Competition featuring Whole Foods chefs. Food by Good Earth Natural Foods and Lydia's Lovin' Foods. Presented by Marin County Bicycle Coalition, Marin Agricultural Land Trust, Next Generation, Hannah Doress Events, College of Marin Students for Social Responsibility and MarinLink. Leading sponsors include Good Earth Natural Foods, Whole Foods Markets, Seventh Generation, Marin Community Foundation, County of Marin Board of Supervisors, Green Ideals Branding and Marketing, Revolutionary Green, Marin Magazine, Pacific Sun, Local Music Vibe, Families for Clean Air, and IsBridge.com Access Database Development. Youth and Adults: enter our green songs contest by 4/12 at LocalMusicVibe.com. For details, group bike rides, volunteering and more: Visit <http://www.EarthDayMarin.org>